

IAHTM

A UNIQUE ORGANIZATION
DEVOTED TO THE SUCCESS OF
LEADERS AND THE
CENTRAL LAUNDRIES AND
LAUNDRY COOPERATIVES THEY MANAGE.

IAHTM is focused on promoting excellence in healthcare laundry operations. Our members have access to:

- Top drawer C-level education,
- Staff education programs,
- Group buying power,
- Benchmarking resources,
- Peer Reviews,
- Peer sharing one-on-one and via email, and
- Industry networking.

The IAHTM Mission

To promote the education of healthcare textile services executives by creating an environment where ideas and information can be shared for the mutual benefit of members and organizations they serve.

Who We Are

- Founded in 1968, IAHTM is the largest healthcare central laundry organization in the world.
- Our members provide service to approximately 7,000 healthcare facilities in the U.S. and Canada and process more than 700 million pounds of clean linen each year.

Top-Drawer Education Keeps Member Organizations Competitive

Annual Member Meeting and Education Conference

- Our Annual Member Meeting and Education Conference brings members together with some of the finest and most relevant speakers and topics in the business marketplace.
- IAHTM's Annual Meeting also offers an opportunity to bring spouses, network with conference sponsors and get to know your peers better one-on-one.

Spring Education Conference

- IAHTM'S Spring Education Conference provide education for members' second and third management tiers. This conference an excellent opportunity for your teams to hone important skills, learn and network with peers.
- The value of these two-day, intensive workshops is greatly increased because they are held at member facilities.

Group Purchasing Power

About IAHTM's Purchasing Program

- IAHTM's combined purchasing power allows member organizations to benefit from costs below those offered by the largest healthcare purchasing group or management company.
- In addition to linen and chemical group purchasing programs, IAHTM constantly explores additional purchasing opportunities to benefit the membership.

BENCHMARKING AND PEER REVIEWS

- Benchmarking — IAHTM and its members participate in multiple information surveys and benchmarking each year. Benchmarking studies are conducted to ensure members are meeting optimal performance and operation standards.
- Peer Reviews — As a member, you can select a team of peers to visit your facility and offer recommendations on an issue of your choice. Whatever the challenge you face, you are not alone. There is no charge for a Peer Review, except travel costs for the team you select.

ANSWERS WHEN YOU NEED THEM

Email Discussion Group — All IAHTM members have access to a private and secure email discussion group, which allows members to query colleagues on any issue and secure answers instantly. . . with the click of a mouse.

Networking — Unlike all other industry organizations, IAHTM members perform the exact same job in the exact same industry. We care about each other's success and issues because they are our own. IAHTM meetings and online discussions greatly increase our members' knowledge and their facilities' access to information that promotes success.

Education Support

James Hunt Scholarship — IAHTM's core mission is the continual professional development of our members. Because of our highly successful group purchasing, we are able to generously subsidize the education and training of members and their staff. Our scholarship is named after longtime member James Hunt. As a member, you can apply for reimbursement of education expenses, whether it's a scholarship to the Laundry and Linen College, assistance for attending IAHTM education conferences, or even helping with the cost of Clean Show attendance.
